DETAILED ACTION

1. This communication is in response to amendment filed 11/30/2006.

Response to Amendment

2. The applicant's amendment has resolved 35 USC 112 (second) deficiencies outlined in the previous office action.

Double Patenting

3. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

4. A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Art Unit: 3693

5. Claims 26, 28-33, 43-64 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-32 of U.S. Patent No. 715411. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claims recited in the patent reference are obvious application or extension of the instant claims. For example, claim 26 is directed to displaying set of accounts, which are not restricted from being spent at the merchant. Claim 1 of the patent recites, "selecting a subset of the plurality of accounts" from identified plurality of accounts corresponding to the user. One of ordinary skill would recognize that invention of claim 26 in the present application is requisite process for invention of claim 1.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 26, 28-33, 43-64 are allowable subject to filing of the terminal disclosure.
